

Bovi-Bond Meeting 2011

Program

Friday, 07-10-2011

12:30-13:45	Arrival, registration and check in
13:45-14:00	Welcome by Vettec
14:00-15:15	Dr. Helen Becky Whay Detection and treatment of Digital Dermatitis in UK dairy cattle. Recent research at the University of Bristol has investigated UK farmers' approaches to both the prevention and treatment of digital dermatitis.
15:15-15:50	Coffee break
15:50-16:20	Marina Kaiser Summary of the hoof trimmer questionnaire during the Bovi-Bond Tagung in 2010
16:20-17:20	Dhr. Jan Hulsen Claw Signals: Four Success Factors for healthy claws Practical explanation of what these factors include.
17:20-18:30	Drinks at marketplace
18:30-20:30	Dinner
20:00 -21:15	3 Workshops Dr. Helen Becky Whay, Drs. Jan Hulsen and Prof. Dr. Christoph Mülling

Saturday, 08-10-2011

07:45-08:45	Registration, check in
08:45-09:00	Welcome by Vettec
09:00-10:00	Prof. Dr. Christoph Mülling Clawdiseases
10:00-10:30	René Pijl Introduction of a new Rubber Block
10:30-10:50	Coffee break
10:50-11:50	Dr. Helen Becky Whay Implementation of existing knowledge to reduce and prevent lameness in the dairy cattle. A recently completed project at University of Bristol has investigates methods of encouraging farmers to implement lameness control measures on farms.
11:50-12:20	Vettec team Short review of the practical training at the farm on Friday morning
12:20-14:15	Marketplace, Lunch
14:15-15:00	Vettec team Summary of the 3 workshops on Friday evening
15:00-15:45	Jan Hulsen Laminitis: What ist is and how to prevent it. Explanation about the development of laminitis and aspects to reduce it.
15:45-16:05	Coffee break
16:05-17:05	Ing. Pieter Kloosterman Ins & Outs of the Dutch Methode
17:05-17:35	interactive end discussion with all speakers on all topics
17:35-18:00	Final words Vettec
18:00-18:30	Drinks at marketplace
18:30/18:45	Dinner

www.bovibond.com

